

Home Schooling & College Preparation Testing

PSAT Testing and Home Schoolers:

- Home schooled students must contact a principal or counselor at the local public school to make arrangements for PSAT testing.
- Testing occurs in mid-October, so arrangements need to be made well in advance (it is suggested to make the arrangements by the previous June).
- On test day, enter Arizona's home school code in the "school code" section. The code is: 990399.
- Test results will be mailed directly to your home address.
- Contact information for the school district that you live in can be accessed on our website at: <http://www.maricopa.gov/schools> or by calling our office at (602) 506-3866.

SAT Testing and Home Schoolers:

- College Board is the company responsible for all SAT testing.
- SAT registration can be done without school involvement. Registration can be completed online or by mail.
- Most SAT testing centers are located at local public high schools in various locations. A list of locations can be obtained by contacting College Board at the contact information below.
- The universal home school code for the SAT test is listed in the Registration Booklet and on the web during online registration.
- Scores are sent to the address provided on the Registration Form. Scores can also be received by phone as well.
- Contact information for College Board is as follows:
<http://www.collegeboard.com> Phone: (866) 756-7346

ACT Testing and Home Schoolers:

- ACT registration can be done without school involvement. Registration can be completed online or by mail.
- The universal home school code for the ACT test is 969-999 and must be entered when registering for the test.
- Scores are sent to your home address as it was entered on the registration form.
- Contact information for ACT is as follows:
<http://www.actstudent.org> Phone: (319) 337-1270

The above information has been compiled based on information supplied by College Board and ACT. Other requirements may be applicable other than what is listed in this document. For more information or if you have questions in addition to what has been provided, please contact the testing company or local school district to get the necessary information. It is not the responsibility of the Maricopa County Superintendent of Schools' Office to provide complete college preparation testing information.